

Cirrus are proud to be a sponsor at Hearing Link's prestigious charity event

Hearing Link hosted a spectacular black-tie fundraising dinner in the presence of their Patron Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal, at St James's Palace, London, on 22nd May. The evening took place in the stunning State Apartments of the 16th century Royal Palace. This exceptional and prestigious occasion marked the launch of the next chapter in Hearing Link's important work for and on behalf of people with hearing loss and their families.

Picture:

Malcolm Boothman of Cirrus Healthcare presents a cheque to Hearing Link.